After a referendum election on November 2, 2004, the Town charter was amended to require the election of the Town Mayor by holding mayoral elections every four years. Pursuant to the Town charter change, one of the five council members seats became the mayor seat. At the regular 2005 election, one mayor and one council member was elected. The person receiving the highest number of votes for the mayor seat was elected mayor for a four-year term. The person receiving the highest number of votes for the council member seat was elected for a four-year term.
