The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals (RFP). The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2022-2023 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2022. The use of these funds in this county require a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Interpersonal Skill Building	Parent/Family Skill Building	Teen Court
Juvenile Structured Day	Restitution/Community Service	Temporary Shelter
Mentoring Services	Runaway Shelter	Vocational Skills
Assessment Programs	Clinical Treatment Programs	Residential Services Programs
Juvenile Mediation	Tutoring / Academic Enhancement

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

School Behavior Problems, Alternatives to Short Term School Suspensions/Truancies, Pro-social peer rejection and association with other involved in delinquent activity, Parent/Family Enhancement Skills needed, Reduction in Juvenile Recidivism, Substance Use, Youth association with Gang members, Vocational Development and Skills, and Family Criminality.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Guilford County youth involved with the juvenile justice system sometimes and/or regularly associate with others involved in delinquent, criminal, assaultive behavior, gang activity, and/or runaway.

Individual Domain: Guilford County youth involved in the juvenile justice system have issues with Substance abuse or use, youth with mental health needs, or need vocational development services.

Family Domain: Parental support and/or parental enhancement skills needed for juvenile court referred youth, and family criminality. Access services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.

School Domain: Youth involved with Guilford County Juvenile Justice system have increased risk of school behavior issues reflected in prolonged absences and suspensions.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.
5. Program/agency provides a sustainability plan at the time of application.
6. Program/agency utilizing trauma focus modalities.
7. Programs and agencies committed to addressing racial and ethnic disparities in the justice system.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
